No Right to Encumber Account

- 1.6 The Client shall not without the prior written consent of Maybank assign, charge, or encumber any Account or the Client's rights therein, or create or permit to create, in favour of any person (other than Maybank) any interest in any Account (by way of trust or otherwise). Maybank shall not be required to recognise any person other than the Client as having any interest in any Account.

Instructions and Orders

- 1.7 (a) The Client authorises Maybank to rely and act on, and treat as fully authorised by and binding upon the Client, any order instruction or communication (by whatever means transmitted and whether or not in writing) which purports to have been given and which is reasonably accepted by Maybank in good faith as having been given by the Client or on the Client's behalf by any person, without further enquiry on the part of Maybank as to the genuineness of authority or identity of the person giving or purporting to give such instructions and regardless of the circumstances prevailing at the time. Without prejudice to the foregoing, Maybank shall be entitled (but not obliged) to verify and be satisfied with respect to the identity of the person purporting to give such order or the source and origin of such order and Maybank may not rely or act upon any such order unless and until Maybank is satisfied as to the matters on which Maybank sought verification. The Client agrees that it shall be responsible to Maybank for all engagements, indebtedness and any obligations made or entered into in the Client's name whether in writing or orally, and howsoever communicated or purported to be given in the manner above. Maybank shall not be liable for any Losses incurred by the Client as a result of Maybank so acting. Maybank shall have the discretion to refuse to accept or act on any orders, instructions or requests of the Client without having to assign any reason for such refusal and Maybank shall bear no liability whatsoever for failing to comply with any orders, instructions or requests of the Client or for exercising or failing to exercise any discretion, power or authority conferred upon Maybank by this Agreement. The record or recollection of any of Maybank's officers, employees or agents receiving oral instructions from the Client is conclusive against the Client as to the contents of such oral instructions.

- (b) Once an order is received by Maybank, such order is binding on the Client provided that the Client may give an order to withdraw, cancel, revoke or vary a previous order in the manner set out in Clause 1.7(c).
- (c) Where the Client gives Maybank an instruction to withdraw, cancel, revoke or vary a previous order, Maybank shall not be obliged to execute such withdrawal, cancellation, revocation or variation unless the previous order has not yet been executed, and provided that the withdrawal, cancellation, revocation or variation, as the case may be, will not prejudice Maybank's position. The Client acknowledges that subsequent orders given to one of Maybank's representatives may not be sufficient to revoke an earlier order given to another of Maybank's representatives, or to cancel an order made with the relevant Maybank representative implementing such order.
- (d) For the avoidance of doubt, the Client shall not assume that its orders have been executed until Maybank confirms the same orally or in writing. However, nothing in this Clause 1.7(d) implies that the Client's orders have not been executed if the Client, for whatever reason, does not receive confirmations of such orders.
- (e) In the event that Maybank decides to act on any order or is otherwise under an obligation to act on any order, Maybank shall be allowed such amount of time to act upon and implement the order as may be reasonable, having regard to the systems and operations of Maybank and the other circumstances then prevailing, and shall not be liable for any loss arising from any delay on the part of Maybank in acting on the order.
- (f) Maybank may send to the Client a Confirmation (if required) after its receipt of an order. The Client shall be responsible for reviewing the Confirmation to ensure that an order has been transmitted, received, processed and duly executed, and shall immediately notify Maybank of any failure to receive an appropriate Confirmation that the order has been received and executed.
- (g) The Client acknowledges and consents to the right of Maybank to aggregate the Client's orders with the orders of Maybank's other clients (whether for execution on other jurisdictions or otherwise). The allotment or distribution of any Capital Markets Products, monies or other property pursuant to such order aggregation to or amongst the Client and Maybank's other clients shall be at Maybank's sole and absolute discretion, and Maybank may also effect Transactions as principal to the counterparty in such jurisdiction. If Maybank so act, Maybank may also take such actions as Maybank may require in order to avoid liability to its counterparty. The Client accepts that such allotment or distribution or actions by Maybank may result in inequities and/or loss to the Client and accepts the risk thereof as being for the Client's account.
- (h) The Client acknowledges and agrees that Maybank's representatives may carry out dealing activities or otherwise operate outside Maybank's office premises and, in this respect, the Client acknowledges and agrees that: (i) it is in the Client's own interest not to use the representative's address as the Client's mailing address for contract notes and statements; (ii) the Client may only enter into Transactions with or otherwise give instructions to Maybank using the telephone or via an internet trading platform, unless Maybank agrees to accept other forms of communication, and such orders are subject to this Agreement; (iii) the Client is responsible for and aware of the attendant risk attached to Transactions executed off-premises; (iv) the Client understands that there might be limitations that may potentially affect the Client's customer service experience, including delays in responding to or executing an instruction or entering into a Transaction, and there is the risk of possible delay in trade processing, outages and unauthorised trading; and (v) the Client agrees to communicate, give instructions and/or place orders only with the representative assigned by Maybank to the Client, and the Client shall be responsible for monitoring its accounts for any unauthorised trading and direct all complaints if any, to Maybank for investigation.
- (i) Maybank may, in its sole and absolute discretion, act either as broker or dealer, or agent or principal in respect of any Transaction, whether such Transaction is effected on the order of the Client or otherwise, and shall not be required to inform the Client of the same. In the event that Maybank assumes the role of the counterparty to any Transaction, Maybank shall be entitled to all gains, profits and benefits derived from such Transaction. Unless otherwise agreed by Maybank, in respect of Transactions on an exchange, Maybank shall act as the Client's agent, and in respect of other Transactions, Maybank shall act as principal to the Client.

Fees and Charges

- 1.8 The Client agrees to pay all fees, commissions, brokerage, stamp duties, clearing fees, goods and services tax, and other charges which may be payable in relation to any of the services provided or Transactions effected for the Client by Maybank and at such rate(s) as may be determined by Maybank. All payments shall be made without deductions or withholding for or on account of any tax, duty or levy. If Maybank is obliged to so deduct or withhold, the Client shall pay such additional sums to Maybank to ensure that the net amount received by Maybank shall be the full amount properly due to Maybank had the deduction or withholding not applied.

Agents

- 1.9 Maybank is authorised to employ agents who may or may not be any of its affiliated companies, to perform all or part of its services or duties, and to provide to such agents information relating to the Client and/or the Transactions requested by the Client. The Client acknowledges and consents to Maybank delegating to and/or using foreign brokers in other jurisdictions for the execution of the Client's orders with respect to Capital Markets Products listed and traded in those jurisdictions. So long as Maybank uses reasonable care in the selection of such brokers, Maybank shall have no liability or responsibility referable to any default or negligence of such foreign brokers. Notwithstanding that as between the Client and Maybank, Maybank is in fact the agent of the Client in using the foreign broker to carry out the Client's orders, Maybank may have to accept sole and principal responsibility to the foreign broker for the executed order. Accordingly, the Client shall indemnify Maybank against any Losses suffered or incurred by Maybank arising from or in connection with carrying out the Client's orders, and actions which Maybank deems in good faith necessary to ensure that Maybank will not be in default of its principal obligation or responsibility or to contain or minimize its loss.

Payment/Handling of Client's Properties

- 1.10 Trading representatives are not authorised to collect payment or handle Capital Markets Products on behalf of Maybank. The Client acknowledges that if the Client chooses to effect payment or to deposit Capital Markets Products by delivering a cheque or Capital Markets Products to his trading representative, payment or deposit of the Capital Markets Products shall be deemed to be made only when Maybank receives the cheque or Capital Markets Products from the trading representative and not when the cheque or Capital Markets Products are delivered to the trading representative. The Client agrees that in the event where payments are made prior to the date for settlement of purchases, Maybank shall deposit such amounts into the Client's trust account and shall only withdraw monies from such trust account for the purposes prescribed in the relevant provisions of the Securities Regulation.
- 1.11 Maybank may, for the purpose of depositing Client's Properties received on account of the Client which are denominated in a foreign currency in a trust account, maintain a trust account with a custodian outside Singapore which is licensed, registered or authorised to conduct banking business in the country or territory where the account is maintained.
- 1.12 The Client acknowledges that Maybank may place monies received on account of the Client in an omnibus customer trust account together with monies that Maybank holds for its other clients. As such the Client, further acknowledges that it would be administratively and operationally difficult, if not impossible (in view of the constant fluctuation of the aggregate balance in such account), to account separately for each of Maybank's clients the interest due on their cash balance in the omnibus account as interest will be received on an aggregated basis. In any event, it is also acknowledged and accepted that such an exercise would be likely to cost more than any interest earned. In these circumstances, it is a condition that the Client waives and relinquishes in Maybank's favour all claims for interest that may otherwise accrue with respect to the Client's monies received by Maybank on the Client's account.
- 1.13 The Client consents that Maybank may hold monies received on account of the Client on trust in such forms of investment prescribed in the relevant provisions of the Securities Regulation.
- 1.14 The Client acknowledges that any Capital Markets Products belonging to the Client which are deposited with Maybank may be held with other Capital Markets Products held by Maybank for other clients on an aggregate or omnibus basis. This may in some instances result in prejudice to the Client and the Client accepts and consents to such arrangement.

Excess Funds

- 1.15 The Client acknowledges that as a general rule excess funds of the Client unless title transferred in favour of Maybank will be held commingled with excess funds of other clients (also not title transferred in favour of Maybank) of Maybank in a trust account in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Securities Regulation. The Client hereby grants Maybank the authority at its discretion to pool any excess funds in the Client's trust account with those of other clients of Maybank, and at its further discretion and subject to compliance with the relevant provisions of the Securities Regulation, to place such funds with either an interest-paying institution or with a fund manager for management with intent to enhance returns on such excess funds by way of investing the same in money market funds. The Client acknowledges that such placement is at Maybank's discretion and Maybank shall have no liability or responsibility if no such placement is made and so long as a placement is made in good faith. As the returns from the funds placed will be returns on a fluctuating amount, it is neither practical nor feasible to calculate the amount pro rata due to the Client and thus the Client accordingly agrees to waive entitlement to claim the returns actually due to the Client's amount of excess funds in return for Maybank paying the Client out of the overall returns from the funds, of which the Client's excess funds is a part of, the returns as Maybank in good faith deems appropriate. It is Maybank's objective to try and ensure that the Client receives a return that is at least equivalent to the average interest payable on savings accounts at local banks in Singapore or any other rates as may be decided by Maybank from time to time but Maybank shall not be liable if for any reason the said overall returns is not, in Maybank's good faith determination, sufficient for Maybank to pay each of its clients (including the Client) the minimum interest that it is Maybank's said objective to try to pay to the Client out of the same and Maybank only pays out to the Client a lesser sum or no sum at all by way of interest.

Interest

- 1.16 The Client agrees to pay interest on all sums due to Maybank after as well as before judgment at such rate(s) of interest as may be determined from time to time by Maybank, and whether or not prior notification thereof has been given to the Client. Foreign currency denominated accounts (e.g. M$ or HK$) are charged different interest rates. Interest shall be settled in S$ at an exchange rate to be determined by Maybank. Interest shall accrue on a daily basis on a 365-day year or 366-day leap year for all outstanding sums due from the due date to the date of full payment.

Set-off

- 1.17 Maybank shall be entitled, without prior notice to the Client, to set-off any debts, liabilities or amounts owing by the Client against any amounts due to the Client or any monies held on behalf of the Client or to which the Client is beneficially entitled including any monies held on trust or as collateral or in the trust account for the Client whether the debts are actual or contingent and irrespective of any differences in currency. Maybank shall be entitled to effect such currency conversions and at such rates of exchange as Maybank may in its absolute discretion deem necessary or appropriate in order to effect such set-off.

Lien

- 1.18 The Client agrees that all the Client's Properties shall be subject to a general lien or liens in favour of Maybank, its nominees, custody and/ or other agents (and the Client shall be deemed to have given any required consent(s) in writing or otherwise in respect thereof) for the discharge of all or any indebtedness and other obligations of the Client to Maybank. The Client shall not be entitled to withdraw any monies or Securities held by Maybank pending the repayment in full to Maybank of any indebtedness of the Client to Maybank. Maybank shall be entitled at any time and without prior notice to the Client to retain apply sell or dispose of all or any of the Client's Properties if any such obligation or liability is not discharged in full by the Client when due or on demand in or towards the payment and discharge of such obligation or liability, and Maybank shall be under no duty to the Client as to the price obtained or any losses or liabilities incurred or arising in respect of any such sale or disposal.

- 1.19 As a continuing security for the payment and satisfaction on demand of all monies and liabilities and the performance of all obligations hereunder which are now or any time may be due, owing or incurred by the Client to Maybank, the Client hereby charges to Maybank, free of all encumbrances and adverse interests, by way of first fixed and equitable charge of all the Client's Properties (and whether posted as collateral to Maybank or otherwise) and which are now or in the future deposited with or are held by Maybank or its nominee, by way of a first fixed legal mortgage all such Client's Properties, the title to which has been transferred by the Client or the Client's nominee to Maybank or Maybank's nominee, in each case, including dividends, rights, monies or property accruing in respect thereof.
- 1.20 The Client shall, upon request by Maybank, forthwith execute all such transfers and other documents as may be necessary to enable Maybank or Maybank's nominee to perfect the charge, to be registered as owner of, or otherwise to obtain legal title to, any Client's Properties deposited with or held by it and which are charged to Maybank pursuant to Clause 1.19. The Client shall, upon request by Maybank, forthwith execute all such transfers and other documents as may be necessary to enable Maybank or Maybank's nominee to perfect the charge, to be registered as owner of, or otherwise to obtain legal title to, any Capital Markets Products (including Custody Products) Client's Properties deposited with or held by it and which are charged to Maybank pursuant to Clause 1.19.

 - (b) assign, invest, use or otherwise dispose of such properties described under Clause 1.21 for Maybank's own benefit either separately or together with identical property provided by other clients/parties.
- 1.22 The Client agrees that no compensation will be payable to the Client in connection with the exercise by Maybank of its rights pursuant to Clause 1.21 and that Maybank is the sole beneficiary of any fee or commission that Maybank may earn from any exercise of Maybank' rights under this Clause 1.21. The Client agrees that no compensation will be payable to the Client in connection with the exercise by Maybank of its rights pursuant to Clause 1.21 and that Maybank is the sole beneficiary of any fee or commission that Maybank may earn from any exercise of Maybank' rights under this Clause 3.16.

- 1.23 For the avoidance of doubt, Maybank shall not be obliged with respect to any of the Client's Properties or other property to retain the same in its possession or control (being entitled to treat all of the same as fungibles) or to retain for the duration of the Account with Maybank like Client's Properties or other property of equivalent amount.

No statement made or provided to the Client (apart from generally circulating advice specifically identified as such) by Maybank or any trading representative is intended to be nor is to be regarded as amounting to any advice or recommendation of any nature to the Client. They are at best, and the Client must accept this as a condition for having and maintaining an Account with Maybank, statements of either fact or (if not a fact) then of personal opinion not amounting and not intended to be advice or recommendation;
- (d) the Client therefore need not and should not complete the Client Investment Profile Questionnaire; and
- (e) notwithstanding Clause 2.6(a) to 2.6(d), if the Client purports to complete and return to Maybank the Client Investment Profile Questionnaire, Maybank will disregard such Client Investment Profile Questionnaire.

2.7 Where Maybank provides advice or recommendation (including ERA), the Client acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) it is a material part of the Client being allowed to open and maintain an Account with Maybank that the Client agrees that in the event the Client, as a Retail Client, requires Maybank in providing any advice or recommendation to ensure that such advice or recommendation is reasonably suitable for the Client bearing in mind the Client's investment objectives, financial situation, particular needs, ability and willingness to bear relevant risks, then the Client must first provide Maybank with full information for Maybank to know such specific investment objectives, financial situation and ability and willingness to bear relevant risks. If the Client does not, then the Client acknowledges and agrees that it must assume sole responsibility for determining the merits or suitability of any and all advice or recommendation received before the Client relies on the same to enter into any Transaction;
- (b) providing Maybank full information means providing Maybank with the information and answers Maybank requests of the Client in the Client Investment Profile Questionnaire that has been provided to the Client (if the Client has not received the same the Client must ask for a copy as Maybank will assume for any and all the Transactions with and through Maybank that the Client has been provided a copy) and such supplemental information and answers as Maybank may ask the Client as are reasonably relevant in the circumstances and providing the same fully and not merely partially;
- (c) the Client has the right to choose to make its own suitability determination. However, if the Client wishes Maybank to be able to make a suitability determination where relevant, the Client must first provide Maybank the required information;
- (d) if the Client fails to return the duly completed questionnaire or refuses to answer in full any questions required by Maybank or to provide in full the information sought by Maybank, the Client acknowledges and agrees that Maybank cannot, until the Client actually corrects that deficiency, align any advice or recommendation with the Client's investment objectives, ability and willingness to take relevant risks, financial circumstances and particular needs and therefore any advice or recommendation provided in respect of the Account with Maybank by any of the Client's trading representative shall be treated at best as only general advice or recommendation that may not be specifically suitable for the Client.

In other words, where the Client has failed or refused or deemed to have failed or refused to provide Maybank with any information or answers as requested then the Client acknowledges and agrees that it will also be taken as having acknowledged (and Maybank will be regarding and materially relying on the Client having acknowledged) that Maybank cannot identify with any certainty the Client's investment objectives, financial circumstances and particular needs and therefore the Client agrees that any advice or recommendation provided by Maybank, any of its duly authorised representatives or officers shall be treated at best only as general advice or recommendation and the Client acknowledges and agrees that such advice does not take into account and may not be suitable for the Client's investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs;

- (e) it is also the Client's responsibility to update Maybank should there be any changes to the Client's investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs after the return of the above duly completed Client Investment Profile Questionnaire, failing which Maybank is entitled to assume that the information and answers provided remain complete and accurate; and
- (f) the other qualifications and notice of disclaimers in the questionnaire are important and should be read, understood and accepted as a condition to the Client being allowed to open and/or maintain an Account with Maybank regardless of whether the Client intends or needs to fill up the questionnaire.

Foreign Exchange Risks

- 2.8 The Client hereby agrees and acknowledges that in the event the Client directs or instructs Maybank to carry out any Transactions on the Client's behalf on an exchange or market on which such Transactions are effected in a foreign currency, unless the Client indicates to the contrary at the time of the giving of instructions to carry out any such Transactions, all such Transactions shall as between the Parties be settled in S$ at a rate of exchange determined by Maybank in its sole discretion on the basis of the then prevailing money market rates of exchange between such currencies. If Maybank agrees, transactions in the Account may be settled in any other currency requested by the Client, but at a rate of exchange decided by Maybank. The Client shall bear any losses damages costs or expenses that may result from any currency conversion effected as aforesaid.

Capital Markets Products Financing with Other Institutions

- 2.9 In the event that the Client concurrently maintains an account with a financial institution for the purpose of obtaining financing for the purchase of Capital Markets Products, the Client authorises Maybank to assist with the transfer of such Capital Markets Products to the relevant Account should the financial institution so request. If the Client obtains financing from a financial institution on an ad-hoc basis, the Client authorises Maybank to deliver such Capital Markets Products to such financial institution as the Client may from time to time instruct.

Delinquent/Disputed Accounts

- 2.10 The Client understands that Maybank may report all delinquent and disputed Accounts. The Client further consents to the reporting of the pertinent particulars relating to such Accounts, including the Client's name, address and NRIC/Passport number, unique entity number and claim amount and such other appropriate information, in the event that such Accounts are classified by Maybank at its sole discretion as delinquent or disputed.

Events of Default

- 2.11 A 'Default' shall be deemed to occur if:
- (a) the Client has failed to comply with any of its obligations hereunder or under any Account or Transaction;
 - (b) (where the client is an individual) the Client decease, becomes bankrupt or insane, commits an act of bankruptcy, or an action to place the Client in bankruptcy is commenced;
 - (c) (where the Client is a partnership) any of the partners decease, become bankrupt or insane, commit an act of bankruptcy, or an action to place any partner in bankruptcy is commenced, or an action is commenced to dissolve and/or alter the partners or the constitution of the Client;
 - (d) (where the Client is a corporation) the Client shall be unable to pay its debts as and when they are due, or action is commenced to place the Client in insolvency, judicial management, receivership, administrative management, or any similar or analogous proceedings;
 - (e) any claim, action or proceeding of any nature is commenced against the Client, or steps are taken by any person to enforce any security against the Client;
 - (f) the Client makes any compromise or arrangement with its creditors; or

- (g) Maybank forms the view, in good faith, that it should take action in order to preserve its rights or interests under any Account or under its relationship with the Client,

Provided that in the case of transactions effected otherwise than on an exchange, in the event of a Default under Clause 2.11(b), (c) or (d), all outstanding Transactions (including any Transaction which has not been performed and in respect of which the value date as determined by Maybank is on or precedes the date on which Maybank terminates such Transaction) entered between the Parties shall be deemed immediately liquidated or at such other time as Maybank may determine at prevailing prices (or, if not available, at such prices Maybank deems fit) and the amounts resulting converted into S$ or such other currency as Maybank may from time to time use as the principal currency of its business (together with all margin duly converted into S$ or such other currency as Maybank may from time to time use as the principal currency of its business) at Maybank's prevailing rates and set-off against each other and the margin prior to Maybank resorting to its rights under Clause 2.11 and/or payment or repayment to the Client (if applicable).

Rights on Occurrence of an Event of Default

2.12 Without prejudice to any other right of Maybank under this Agreement or otherwise at law, in the event of Default, Maybank may (but is not obliged to) immediately or at any time thereafter, do any one or more of the following:

- (a) suspend (indefinitely or otherwise) or terminate any Account, or Maybank's relationship with the Client and accelerate any and all liabilities of the Client to Maybank so that they shall become immediately due and payable;
- (b) hedge and/or close out any outstanding Transaction (including any Transaction which has yet to be settled on the date on which Maybank terminates such Transaction) by determining its value in good faith as of the date of the close-out as soon as practicable after the close-out;
- (c) liquidate the margin or part thereof at a price which Maybank deems appropriate in the circumstances;
- (d) call upon any security including any guarantees and letters of credit which may have been issued to or in favour of Maybank as security for the Transactions;
- (e) apply any amounts of whatsoever nature standing to the credit of the Client against any amounts which the Client owes to Maybank (of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising, including any contingent amounts), or generally to exercise Maybank's right of set-off against the Client;
- (f) demand any shortfall from the Client, hold any excess pending full settlement of any other obligations of the Client, or pay any excess to the Client by way of cheque to the last known address of the Client; and
- (g) exercise such other authority and powers that may have been conferred upon Maybank by this Agreement.

Extraordinary Event

2.13 If there occurs in relation to any Transaction (otherwise than on an exchange) or otherwise in relation to an Account an Extraordinary Event, Maybank shall have the sole discretion to determine any adjustments or action necessary in relation to such Transaction or any or all Transactions or otherwise to an Account in view of the Extraordinary Event. Such adjustments or actions may include altering or varying the quantities of currencies or financial instruments or the exchange rates or specifications of currencies or instruments bought or sold in respect of such Transaction or some or all Transactions, or terminating the Transaction in question or some or all Transactions, or an Account or otherwise. Provided Maybank undertakes such action in good faith, any such adjustment or action shall be binding on the Client who shall be liable for any additional loss incurred by Maybank on the account of the Client or which the Client is consequently liable for as a result of such adjustment or action.

Right to Force Sell

2.14 The Client understands that if he does not pay for any Capital Markets Products purchased by the due date, Maybank shall have the right to force sell any or all of these Capital Markets Products in such manner as it deems fit. Maybank may (but need not) exercise this right on any day after the day on which the right to force sell first arose. Maybank will not be liable to the Client for any Losses suffered by the Client as a result of any fall in the market price of the Capital Markets Products between the first day the right to force sell arose and the day it actually sells the Capital Markets Products or as a result of any failure to force sell.

Buying-In

2.15 Before placing an order for the sale of Capital Markets Products, the Client shall ensure that the relevant Capital Markets Products are available for delivery and will constitute good delivery thereof on the settlement date of the Transaction. If delivery of Capital Markets Products is not made on the settlement date, Maybank shall have the right to buy-in immediately and bill the Client for the difference. Maybank will not be liable to the Client for any Loss suffered by the Client as a result of any rise in the market price of the Capital Markets Products between the time the right to buy-in arose and the time it actually buys the Capital Markets Products.

3. CUSTODIAL SERVICE

General

- 3.1 The Client requests Maybank to act as the custodian of all the Capital Markets Products (“Custody Products”) at any time delivered to Maybank to be held under this Agreement (“Custodial Services”). Maybank may in its sole discretion accept such request to provide the Custodial Services to the Client on the terms set out in this Clause 3. In doing so, the Client acknowledges and accepts that nothing in this Clause 3 shall have the effect of constituting Maybank as a fiduciary of the Client or otherwise with respect to the Custody Products, any relationship of trustee and beneficiary between the Parties, or any further relationship other than as expressly contemplated in this Clause 3.

Bare Custodial Services

- 3.2 Unless otherwise agreed, Maybank shall receive and hold in custody the Custody Products. Subject to the Client’s acknowledgement in any event that Maybank as custodian is not a fiduciary to the Client or otherwise with respect to the Custody Products but shall be regarded generally only as a bare custodian and not trustee of the Custody Products, the duties of Maybank shall be:
- (a) to hold or procure to be held to its order all documents evidencing ownership of the Custody Products and identify in its books that all Custody Products belong to the Client;
 - (b) to procure that all Custody Products other than bearer Custody Products are registered in the name of Maybank, or such other nominee or nominees as Maybank or any sub-custodian (as the case may be) may appoint in accordance with this Agreement or, where due to the nature of the law or market practice of any relevant jurisdiction, it is in the Client’s best interests or it is not feasible to do otherwise, any sub-custodian. In these circumstances, the Custody Products will still be held in such a way that it is readily apparent that the Custody Products are not the property of Maybank, any sub-custodian or any nominee appointed by Maybank or any sub-custodian (as the case may be). The Custody Products may be registered collectively with other Custody Products both of Maybank and/or other clients of Maybank in the same name and where so registered, the Client’s entitlements under the Custody Products may not be identifiable by separate certificates or other physical documents of title or equivalent electronic records (although Maybank and/or its delegate(s) will maintain records such that it will be readily apparent the degree of the Client’s interest in the commingled so collectively held but on the express understanding and agreement of the Client that where such commingling and aggregation of the Custody Products of the Client and the Custody Products of other persons result in entitlements to any dividends, interest and other monies payable in respect of the Custody Products and all other rights, benefits and proceeds in respect of or derived from the same (whether by way of redemption, bonus, preference, option, substitution, conversion or otherwise) (the “Related Assets”) which otherwise without such commingling or aggregation would not have accrued to the Custody Products (the “Bonus Related Assets”), Maybank has full discretion as to the allotment of such Bonus Related Assets as amongst its clients, including the Client as it deems fit). Should Maybank, any sub-custodian or its nominee default, any shortfall in the Custody Products registered in that name may be shared pro rata among all clients of Maybank or sub-custodian whose Custody Products are so registered;
 - (c) to hold or procure that there are held in safe custody all Custody Products that are bearer Custody Products and ensure that such Custody Products are held in such a manner that it is readily apparent that they are not the property of Maybank or any sub-custodian. Such Custody Products shall be segregated by Maybank or any sub-custodian (as the case may be) from all property of Maybank or sub-custodian and shall be identified as held by Maybank or sub-custodian for the account of the Client. Where any Custody Products are in uncertificated form, or otherwise transferable by book-entry transfer, Maybank may use the services of any securities depository, on such terms as it may think fit, for the purpose of the holding and transfer of such Custody Products (or entitlements thereto);
 - (d) except to the extent permitted or not prohibited by the relevant provisions under the Securities Regulation, to hold and/or procure that any sub-custodian holds Custody Products, if registered in the same name as investments of Maybank or the sub-custodian, in an account designated separately from that used for investments of Maybank or sub-custodian (as the case may be);
 - (e) on receipt of the Client’s instructions or with the Client’s authority to make or accept delivery of the Custody Products which have been sold, purchased, transferred or otherwise acquired or lent or disposed of by the Client or its agent, such acceptance or delivery to be made in accordance with the normal practice for transactions of the type concerned;

- (f) to use its reasonable endeavours to collect and receive Related Assets including income and other payments due with respect to the Custody Products provided that the Client acknowledges and accepts that Maybank (whether directly or through any delegate or agent) shall have no duty or responsibility but is entitled, if so chooses to:
 - (i) exercise or discharge any obligations conferred or imposed by reason of Maybank's holding of the Custody Products or to investigate, participate or take any affirmative action in connection therewith or otherwise;
 - (ii) send or give notice of any proxy form or other document which Maybank may receive in respect of the Custody Products;
 - (iii) recognise any claim in the nature of a trust or equitable claim by anyone other than the Client in respect of the Custody Products or any part thereof; or
 - (iv) otherwise make any notification to the Client in respect of the Custody Products, or take any other action in relation to the Custody Products;
- (g) to credit, in such manner as the Client shall instruct, all income and other payments received by Maybank under this Clause 3.2;
- (h) to sign, execute and/or complete such documents, certificates, or forms from time to time required for fiscal and taxation purposes in connection with the collection of income from the Custody Products including bonds and note coupons; and
- (i) to keep or (to the extent reasonably practicable) procure there to be kept by any sub-custodian, or any nominee appointed by Maybank or any sub-custodian (as the case may be), such books, records and statements, in retrievable form, as may be necessary to provide an adequate record of all Custody Products held and transactions carried out by or on behalf of the Client.

3.3 Maybank may refuse to act as custodian in relation to any Capital Markets Products it deems unsuitable to be held hereunder without giving any reason or being liable for any loss thereby occasioned.

Nominees/Delegates

3.4 Maybank is authorised to appoint one or more nominees or sub-custodians (whether foreign or otherwise) for providing the Custodial Services. For the purpose of such arrangement, the Client is deemed to have contracted as principal with such nominees or sub-custodians.

3.5 Where Capital Markets Products are held by nominees or sub-custodians, Maybank will separately agree in writing with the nominees or sub-custodians the terms and conditions prescribed in the relevant provisions of the Securities Regulation ("Custody Agreement") governing the deposit of Capital Markets Products. By using the Custodial Services, the Client is deemed to have consented to such arrangement and acknowledges that the terms and conditions of the Custody Agreement have been disclosed by Maybank to the Client in accordance with the requirements under the Securities Regulation.

3.6 The Client acknowledges and accepts that such arrangement carries risks that may in some instances result in prejudice to the Client such as the insolvency of nominees or sub-custodians. In addition, different settlement, legal and regulatory requirements and different practices relating to the segregation of the Custody Products may apply.

Fees and Charges

3.7 In consideration of Maybank's provision of the Custodial Services, the Client hereby agrees to pay Maybank such fees (exclusive of any goods and services tax or other relevant tax) as may be determined by Maybank and notified by Maybank to the Client.

3.8 The Client shall, on demand, pay to or reimburse (or shall procure payment to or reimbursement of) Maybank for all expenses (including without limitation, management or supervisory fees, agents' and other adviser's fees, disbursements and operating expenses) incurred by Maybank, its nominees, sub-custodians or agents in connection with:

- (a) the performance by Maybank of its obligations hereunder; and
- (b) the enforcement or preservation by Maybank of its rights hereunder, together with any applicable goods and services tax or other relevant tax.

3.9 The Client hereby authorises Maybank with a pre-advice of 10 calendar days to debit any of the Accounts with, and/or (without prejudice to the generality of Clause 3.16) to set-off against any Related Assets, all amounts due or which may become owing by the Client to Maybank, together with any applicable goods and services tax or other relevant tax.

Delivery of Custody Products

- 3.10 All Custody Products delivered or to be delivered to Maybank from time to time for the purposes of this Clause 3 must be in the required or regular form in board lots and in good delivery order or must be transferred and deposited into such Account as Maybank shall direct. Where applicable, all non-matured coupons and duly executed transfers must be attached thereto.

Custodial Duties and Powers

- 3.11 Maybank shall in addition to the powers set out in Clause 3.2(f) be entitled to do, subject and on receipt of the Client's instructions to the contrary, any other act or refrain from doing any other act unless (as the case may be) prohibited or required by law or regulation, in relation to any Custody Products, which under the terms of the Client's agreement with Maybank, Maybank is not specifically (as the case may be) either prohibited or required to do. Without prejudice to the foregoing the Client hereby specifically instructs Maybank that, until it receives written instructions to the contrary, whenever the Client purchases Capital Markets Products through it, and the sums standing to the credit of the Account in which the Custody Products are held are sufficient to satisfy the purchase price of the Custody Products, Maybank is to withdraw from such Account such sum as is equal to the purchase price and appropriate such sum to Maybank in satisfaction of the Client's obligation to pay the purchase price, or where the Capital Markets Products are contra sold, to use such sums for any contra losses incurred (if any). Also, without prejudice to any of the foregoing, any amount payable by the Client in respect of the Custodial Services shall be payable to Maybank or its nominees, sub-custodians or agents (as the case may be) on demand and may be deducted from the Custody Products or the said Account.

3.12 Statements and Information

- 3.13 Maybank shall provide or procure the provision to the Client of such reports and statements concerning the Custody Products and at such intervals as agreed between them from time to time. Where such statements are provided to the Client by electronic means, the Client agrees to the terms of such delivery set out in the Appendix to this Agreement.

- 3.14 Maybank may, on the request of the Client and subject to payment by the Client of such fee as may be determined by Maybank and notified by Maybank to the Client, furnish to the Client such information in respect of the Custody Products as the Client may reasonably request.

Return of Custody Products

- 3.15 The Client shall not have any right to specific Capital Markets Products custodised with or through Maybank, but will be entitled, subject to this Agreement, to delivery by Maybank of Capital Markets Products of the same class, denomination and nominal amount, and which rank pari passu with those accepted by Maybank as being the Custody Products, subject always to any capital reorganisation or share exchange which may have occurred. Such delivery may be to the Client or any specified third party.

Authorisations

- 3.16 In addition and without prejudice to the foregoing, Maybank is authorised (but not obliged), either by itself, through a nominee or otherwise, and whether in Singapore or elsewhere to do any lawful act or thing which in the discretion of Maybank is necessary to preserve the integrity of the Custody Products and/or any Account and/or to protect the reasonable interests of the Client and/or Maybank.

Client Primarily Liable

- 3.17 Notwithstanding that the Client may as between the Client and a third party be effecting transactions on and/or in respect of any part or all of the Custody Products for and on behalf of such third party, as between the Parties, the Client shall be deemed to be, and is, transacting as sole principal. The Client acknowledges, undertakes and agrees to be always primarily liable for such transactions in all or part of the Custody Products.

Orders/Instructions

- 3.18 Maybank need only act on instructions (oral or otherwise) from the Client in respect of any Account or any part or all of the Custody Products. Maybank shall not be required to act in accordance with any instruction from the Client which purports to dispose of or deal with any Capital Markets Products or other property which are in fact not held in any Account and/or which are not in fact the Custody Products.

- 3.19 Maybank shall only be required to act on or effect any instruction from the Client within a reasonable time. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the Client wishes to withdraw any part or all of the Custody Products, the Client shall give at least seven (7) days' notice to Maybank prior to such withdrawal.

- 3.20 Any instructions (oral or otherwise) purported to be given by any person other than the Client, need not be acted on by Maybank but Maybank is authorised to act on any and all such instructions which Maybank in good faith has reason to believe is from the Client as soon as such instructions have been received by Maybank without requiring written confirmation thereof. Maybank shall not be liable for any loss, damage, cost, charge and expense incurred by the Client as a result of Maybank so acting.

Set-Off Rights

- 3.21 Without prejudice to any other right which Maybank may have whether under law or by this Agreement, Maybank is expressly conferred by the Client a right to effect a set-off against the Client's obligations to Maybank whether referable to the Client's Account(s), any money or credit balance in any Account(s) or any other account(s) maintained by Maybank for the Client's benefit (including the trust account Maybank is obliged to maintain for the Client pursuant to Maybank's obligations under the Applicable Laws and including such sum as Maybank may otherwise be obliged to pay to the Client as a consequence of exercising Maybank's right of conversion under this Agreement, as Maybank deems necessary or appropriate any currency conversion.

Contra Losses

- 3.22 The Client agrees that:
- (a) no Custody Products may be withdrawn if there are any contra losses outstanding; and
 - (b) if any contra loss is not paid within such time as Maybank may specify, Maybank is entitled to sell such of the Custody Products as may be necessary to reimburse Maybank of such contra losses.

Unclaimed Property

- 3.23 In the event there remain any Client's Properties which are unclaimed by the Client six (6) years after Maybank received such properties and Maybank determines in good faith that it is not able to trace the Client, the Client agrees that all such unclaimed properties then standing to the credit of the said Account or otherwise held by Maybank, its nominee, sub-custodian or agent (as the case may be) together with any property as may from time to time continue to accrue to such unclaimed properties (whether by way of dividends, interest or otherwise) may forthwith be appropriated by Maybank to itself to use in any manner Maybank so wishes for its own benefit. The Client shall have no right whatsoever to claim such unclaimed properties (or any other property as may accrue to it), the Client being deemed to have waived and abandoned all its rights to such unclaimed properties (and any other property as may accrued to it) in favour of Maybank.

4. INTERNET TRADING
